Civil Service Examination.

The United States Civil Service Commission has ordered that an examination be held by its local board in this city on Saturday, December 4th 1897, commencing at 9 o'clock a. m., for the grade S. of Clerk and Carrier in the post office service. Only citizens of the United States can be examined. The age limitations for this examinations are as follows: Clerk over 18 years, carrier over 21 and under 40 years. No application will be accepted for this examination unless filed with the undersigned, on the proper blank, before the hour of closing business on November 18th, 1897. Applications should be filed promptly in order that time may remain for correction if necessary.

The Commission takes this opportunity of stating that the examinations are open to all reputable citizens of the United States who may desire to enter the service, witout regard to race or to the political or religious affiliations. All such citizens are invited to apply. They shall be examined, graded, and certified with entire impartiality, and wholly without regard to any consideration save their efficiency, as shown by the grades they obtain in the examination.

An Important Ruling.

Attorney D. Schenck, Jr., argued a case this morning in which a new point of law was raised and a decision given that will effect practice more or less in this State.

The United States statute requires the defendant seeking to remove a case from the State to the Federal court to file the petition of removal at the time prescribed by the State statute for the defendant to answer. The State statute provides that the defendant must answer at the term to which the case is returnable. Hitherto it has been the custom to disregard the mandatory clause requiring the complaint to be filed during the first three days of the term, the plaintiff taking thirty days in which to file the petition for removal.

Mr. Schenck raised the point that mutual consent of the parties could not nullify the mandatory clause of the statute and the court held with him. The new decision will entail considerable hardship upon defendants hereafter. Mr. Schenck has received many compliments from the profession on his coup.

Marriage this Evening.

This evening at seven o'clock Miss Mamie Pickard will be married to Mr. A. A. Chandler at the residence of the bride's brother, Mr. T. M. Pickard, on Cedar street. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. Dr. Weaver, and the couple will leave on the 7:50 train for Mt. Airy.

Anna Stibler, aged 74 years, who was formerly lady-in-waiting to the former Empress Charlotte of Mexico, attempted to commit suicide in Vienna yesterday by repeatedly stabbing herself in the neck and cutting off her tongue.

POINTS FROM HIGH POINT.

Personal and Local Affairs Briefly Mentioned.

TELEGRAM BUREAU,
HIGH POINT, N. C., Oct. 6, '97.

A foot ball team was organized last night with the following members and positions:

Subs—Burns, Remfry, Barbee, Ingram, Parker, Jack Ragsdale, Will Armfield, Milt Crawford, Lee Payne, Bob Jones.

After practiceing a short while they will challenge Trinity High School, and if victorious, will challenge any and all—nit.

W. W. Wood, of Greensboro, purchased one of the celebrated Skinner Engines, of the High Point Machine Works.

The Epworth League was organized at the Methodist Episcopal church last night. Officers for the ensuing year were elected.

Devotional exercises will be held in the lecture room of the church Sunday afternoon at 6:45, conducted by Prof. Crowell.

Mr. Thos. H. Patten, who recently resigned as secretary and treasury of the Southern Chair Co., we learn will return to High Point, on account of his health. Mr. Patten has a host of friends here who will be glad to know of his return.

Mr. W. P. Fife, daughter and Miss Eugenia Fife, were in the city yesterday shopping.

In compliance with the ordinance passed Monday night, Officer Burns is removing all signs from the electric light and telephone poles. He says this is such a law abiding town, that it is a pleasure to him to have something to do.

Mr. Ed. Clinard, who was operated upon for appendicitis by Dr. J. W. Long, of Salisbury, assisted by Drs. Cox and Stanton, of High Point and Dr. Gordon of Jamestonwn, is doing well this morning.

Dr. H. T. Bahnson returned to Winston last night from Asheboro, where he had been attending upon the daughter of Mrs. A. H. Worth.

Sheriff Hoskins, of Greensboro was in the city last night.

TWO PROUD BOYS.

Tom Beall and Charlie Brockman are Successful.

The contest for a suit of clothes offered by Matthews, Chisholm & Stroud to the boy between 6 and 16 years of age who would bring the largest number of their advertisement containing the offer, was closed at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

There were 1,650 brought in from the TELEGRAM, and 1,252 from the Record. Master Thomas S. Beall led and captured the prize with 1,279 TELEGRAM ads, and Master Charlie Brockman was successful with 1,123 Record ads.

Masters Tom and Charlie are now the proud owners of bran new suits, and it is fortunate that they are small boys, as they might have been disappointed for a few days. The larger sizes of these suits were all sold out, the last ones going this morning. A large stock was laid in, but they went like hot cakes, and another lot is on the way. This would indicate that advertising is a good scheme, and you might paste it in your hat that THE TELEGRAM is a good advertising medium.

For the Firemen's Benefit.

West's park should be crowded tonight. Dr. Blue Mountain Joe's combination will give an entertainment for the benefit of the firemen. The program will be an unique one, and will embrace a laughable comedy, entitled, "Subject for Dissecting," popular songs and dances, the brother act by Mack Brothers, introducing grand and lofty tumbling. There will also be splendid vocal selections, and Eddie McDade will appear in wonderful feats of contortion.

The jokes of Eddie McDade, the emperor of black face comedy, will alone repay you fully for the small admission price. The performance will conclude with a comedy entitled "The Dutch Justice, or Scenes in Greensboro Police Court."

This will be the strongest program yet presented by this company here. Doors open at 7 o'clock; performance begins at 8 sharp. Admission 20 cts. Children under twelve years 10 cts.

Capt. General Weyler announced yesterday that the mail steamship Reina Cristina, which arrived from Spain, brought $2,000,000 for him, to be applied to military expenses.

GIRLS BURNED TO DEATH

Results of a Fire in a Western Industrial School.

ORIGIN OF THE FIRE UNKNOWN

Twenty-Five Others Barely Escape With Their Lives—Loss, Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Plankinton, S. D., Oct. 6. — The girls' cottage at the State Industrial School was destroyed by fire about 12 o'clock last night. The building was full of girls at the time and all had retired. Six of the girls lost their lives in the flames and the others were compelled to escape in their night clothes.

The loss by the fire is estimated at twenty-five thousand dollars. The origin is unknown though it is thought to have been caused by the explosion of a lamp.

THE POLITICAL POT BUBBLING.

Ovation to George Last Night Causing A Great Stir.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Oct. 6.—The ovation accorded Henry George last night, is causing a great stir in the different political headquarters. It is expected that the national committee will endorse George because he stands on the Chicago platform.

LOW WILL OPEN HIS CAMPAIGN.

The Citizens Union Will Hold a Big Ratification Meeting.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Oct. 6. — Seth Low will open his campaign at Cooper Union this afternoon. He will be the principal speaker at a big ratification meeting which will be held there under the auspices of the citizens' union.

"Your Duty Without Fear or Favor."

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 6—The lynching of Click Mitchel at Urbana, last June, will be thoroughly investigated. The grand jury was charged by Judge Heiseman; he made it clear to the jury that it was their duty to make a thorough investigation and "without fear or favor to do their sworn duty to the end that justice may be done and the majesty of the law vindicated."

The vacancy on the jury was filled by the appointment of a colored man.

Loan of Fifty Million Refused.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, Oct. 6—The Cuban administration has caused a serious difficulty to arise between the bank of Spain and the ministry. The ministers request for a loan of fifty million pesetas has been practically refused by the bank. This is regarded as sure to cause trouble between the bank and the ministry.

For the Temple Cup Yesterday.

Boston, Oct. 5—The second game in Temple cup series was, like the first, distinguished by terrific hitting on both nines, but today Baltimore came out ahead through their ability to get in their hits when they were most needed, while Corbett, though hit hard, held the home team down at critical times. The game was much more interesting and exciting than that of yesterday and the home team was very much in it until the last inning, when they fell down woefully, though one safe hit would have tied the score. No ground rules hindered long hits, and the players, getting the full worth of their drives, ran bases daringly, without fear of being called back.

Again, the perfect weather made the game enjoyable, while there was only a small kick in the last inning on account of darkness.

Score: Baltimore 13, Boston 11.

We Will Try to Bear It.

The Salisbury correspondent of the Charlotte Observer says:

Revenue Agent Lee Redmon, formerly of Statesville, now of Philadelphia, was in the city this morning en route to Greensboro. It will be remembered that some weeks ago, in a published interview with a Philadelphia newspaper man, Redmon was quoted as making statements highly slanderous of this section and state. Redmon said that in the newspaper article in question, he had been misquoted in many things by the reporter. He said he would never return to this section to reside.

President McKinley informed a Virginia delegation who invited him to attend the Norfolk fair that he would be compelled to remain in Washington by the pressure of public business.

A BOLD THIEF.

Mr. Lacy, of Montgomery County, Robbed Here Last Night.

Mr. Ivey Lacy drove up from home in Montgomery county yesterday to attend federal court. Last night he was encamped in Hudson's lot on South Elm. He had with him an adopted son, 17 years old and they slept together in the wagon.

They retired last night with a feeling of the utmost security, and awoke this morning to find that a bold, bad, daring rober had visited them during the night. Mr. Lacy's vest was gone as was also that of the young man. Mr. Lacy was also minus his pocket book and about $2.60 in money which he brought along for incidental expenses. His spectacles and spectacle case were also missing. He thinks he was chloroformed, as there was a peculiar smell about the wagon which he says he is not accustomed to.

The thief obtained the pocket book and money by making a cross incision in Mr. Lacy's pants pocket as neatly as if done with a tailor's shears.

This robber is treading on dangerous soil, when he's monkeying around Greensboro. This may at present be poor consolation to Mr. Lacy, but before long the thief may find poor consolation in remembering that he committed the robbery.

DISCHARGED FOR KISSING A GIRL.

Nearly Two Hundred Men on a Strike As a Result.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New Castle, Pa. Oct, 6.—Nearly two hundred men struck at the New Castle tin plate works, because a workman was discharged for trying to kiss one of the girls employed in the factory. Both the man and the girl deny the attempt.

Will Not Ask for an Answer.

London, Oct. 5.—It is officially denied that the United States monetary commissioners, headed by Senator Wolcott, of Colorado, intended to request the English government to give them a final and immediate answer to their proposals, as stated in a special article published by the Times, this morning.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 6, 1897.

You can get the telegraphic news twelve hours earlier in THE TELEGRAM than in any paper that gets into Greensboro, and for four dollars a year less.

A WOMAN-in-waiting of the ex-Empress Charlotte of Mexico cut off her tongue; the result was fatal.

POSTMASTER Loftin, of Hogansville, evidently considers a bullet or two as insignificant incidents ina postmasters life.

Mr. LOW having resigned the Presidency of Columbia may find it was easier to get out with the old love than in with the new.

THE Cubans might be pleased with a policy of autonomy but what they are likely to object to is Spain's desire to look on and see the thing well done.

IT is quite within the range of probabilities that when uncle Sam gets Greenland and Hawaii and Cuba appended to him, he will wake up some dark night with an accute attack of appendicitis.

THE Baltimores claim that the first game of the Temple cup series was finished by moonlight, which suggests that there has been a good deal of moonshine in Oriole exhibitions of baseball lately.

PHYSICIANS report a new malady which they term "theatre sickness." The patient, it is said, loses all sense of his own locality. We have improved on that: Last night the audience lost all sense of the locality of the company.

THE trial of the sausage maker is fast becoming a joke to everybody concerned with it except the sausage maker himself. Even the judge relieved the tedium with a witicism. Mr. Luetgert will wait until the jury has decided whether the joke is on him before joining in the merriment.

SPEAKING of the array of legal talent employed by Governor Russell, in the Western Union Telegraph case, the Statesville Landmark puts the matter in this light:

Here are seven lawyers employed and paid out of the State Treasury in this comparatively frivolous case. It is true that telegraphic rates ought to come down, but what proportion of the people of North Carolina are interested in them? Not one in a hundred. It is only the people of the cities and towns, and only the wealthier of these, who use the telegraph at all, while here the whole people are taxed to pay seven lawyers to do what one should be able to do, viz: see if the telegraph company can be made to drop from 25 to 15 cents in its charges on messages.

WE published in our local columns yesterday an account of what Greensboro has been doing in the way of erecting new buildings since this year began. Yet there is no one thing more patent than that the supply of houses is still woefully less than the demand. We know of a dozen families now that either cannot get suitable houses at all, or who wish to rent houses larger and more convenient than those they now occupy. It is well known that rents are sufficiently high here, and it is difficult to see how capital invested in houses, equipped with modern conveniences, could fail to to pay handsome returns; certain it is that the dearth of suitable buildings is retarding the growth of the city. Families wish to come here but cannot secure houses in which they may live comfortably. All this is bad for a town that claims to be abreast of the times as Greensboro may in one sense justly do. People cannot camp out, even in our excellent climate, and every man who lives in a house is not able to own it. Let some be built for rent.

THERE is scarcely a week passes now that it is not marked by the organization of at least one big trust. In every instance the organizers take care that it is given out that the purpose of the trust is to cheapen the cost of production; in no case will the cost of the product to the consumer be increased. The trust in its beneficence, purposes a reduction in cost rather than otherwise. In view of the history of trusts all this disingenousness is rather amusing. As a piece of lying, it is purely gratuitous, since nobody believes it, and certainly nobody can help being robbed, if the trust has a mind to rob him. The fifty million wire and nail trust can run up the price of those two articles a fraction of a cent on the pound, and make millions out of it; nobody can prevent them. But what is the use of telling the consumer that it is whittling down the cost of production that the trust is after? One appreciates courage and frankness, even in a robber. The highwayman who holds you up and relieves you of your purse, without any excuses, is preferable to the one who spins a yarn about a sick wife and famishing children.

BRADSHAW, Att'y.

NEWS OF THE TAR HEEL STATE.

The attendance of the Raleigh city schools is ten per cent. greater than ever before.

A special from Moncure to the News and Observer says: A negro by the name of Robt. Lawrance shot his wife near here this morning. Lawrence is a desperate negro. He whipped his wife about two months ago. He was a brakeman on the S. A. L., and is still at large. She may recover.

Stewart Bros., of Winston, have surrendered the paper belongiug to the state which they had in their possession.

An old darkey was found in an alley in Morganton with his neck broken. There is no clue as to how the killing occurred.

Nine new convicts were brought to the penitentiary yesterday. Two of them were from Pitt county and seven from Perquimans county.

The rumor now is that Raleigh's new democratic morning paper is to appear about November 1, and that it will be in large 4-page form.

The Charlotte News says the old fashioned whipping post is to be established in Mecklenburg county, as the authorities believe it will be more efficacious than the chain gang.

The superintendent of public instruction yesterday prepared warrants covering $58,000 of the educational funds ordered divided among the counties. The warrants go out today.

In a freight wreck on the S. A. L., near the Pilot cotton mills, two box cars and a flat were derailed and merchandise scattered around promiscuously, but no one was hurt.

The newly appointed railroad commissioner, John H. Pearson, yesterday served his complaint on S. Otho Wilson, in the case to contest the title to the office of railroad commissioner and the validity of the governor's removal of Winston and appointment of Pearson.

A cotton gin belonging to George Mitchiner, in Wake county, and eighteen bales of cotton were destroyed by fire yesterday morning. The fire was discovered about 1 o'clock, but it had made such headway that it was impossible to save any of the property. The origin is unknown.

The following postmasters have been appointed in North Carolina: Bladenboro, D. B.Edwards; Brinkleyville, H. J. Hewlin; Churchill, H. Dennington; Granite Hill, W. A. Brown; Jamestown, J. D. Gardner; Portsmouth, Lena G. Roberts; Swansboro, N. W. Smith: Wildwood, W. H. Watson.

Work on the extension of the Carthage Railroad, Mr. Petty, its president says is rapidly progressing. Six miles have already been graded and three miles of ties are down. One hundred and forty men are engaged in the work—one hundred of them are convicts. The whole nine miles, Mr. Petty thinks, will be in operation by December.

Moonshiners are attacking good people near the Franklin and Warren county boundary. Raids of illicit stills have lately been made in that locality and the moonshiners suspected two respectable citizens of informing the revenue officers. They went to the houses of these citizens at night, pulled them out of bed, whipped and maltreated them. One was taken from home in the presence of his wife and two children. Indignation is intense throughout Warren at this outrage.

No official proposition has been made by the Postffice Department to transfer the Hogansville, (Ga.) postmaster to another position. His wife has written to the department suggesting a transfer.

Notes of The Prowler

The Bertha Creighton poster that represents Romeo carrying off Juliet on his shoulder may not be according to Shakespeare, but in view of developments it may be considered prophetic. That, by the way, is a rather unique affair, even for a play-bill. There are many original things about it. The patriarchal old gentleman, for example, who looks like John Kendrick Bangs' Noah in the "Houseboat" has, in the haste of the moment, gotten a tube of bicycle glue instead of the vial of deadly poison.

There is nothing like philosophy, even when the play don't come. We heard many people bemoaning the sudden change of program last night, but the most consolatory moan came from a young gentleman who had secured seats for the performance. He was sorry the play had absconded; he was even threatened with ultramariue melancholy for a time, but there came to him a soothing reflection and he remarked, "Well, I'm a dollar and a half in, any way," and he sauntered off to addle himself with a glass of soda water.

It is impossible not to feel a tinge of sympathy for the small boy as one runs over the inflamed expanse of circus posters. Take that scene where the polar bear, with the benevolent smile, is jumping on a walrus, while the other polar bear turns his head so that the camera may clearly outline his profile against the iceberg in the rear. It will be the first terrible shock to the small boy's confiddence in human hature when he finds that tragedy is not to be pulled off in the circus.

There are few better places for the searcher after types to prosecute his calling than around a federal court. The types are somewhat disjointed from their normal environment, but there is a piquancy of contrast and sharp zest of variety that is not to be found even in the heart of the Smokies or Brushies. The festive young moonshiner, making his first appearance in court, and looking with awe at the wonderful array of legal talent, the old timer ruminating his quid with bovine placidness, the sleek young attorney laboring to feel quite at home, all the tiers of spectators who are spectators because they have nothing else to do, and the politician bubbling over with pleasure to see Tom and Bill and Jim—it is a comedy and a tragedy, and one scarcely knows which predominates.

There are mysterious whisperings going the rounds and hand-bills being passed in the night between the faithful; there are premonitions of a tornado of razors and promises of oratory sizzling hot; there are strange personages in town and nobody quite knows their business; there are confabulations not given out for publication, and threats and head-shakings the purport of which will come out later.

The Prowler fell in with one of those hand-bills, which is addressed to "All Colored Voters," and calls on them to meet on tomorrow night, at Bogart's Hall, where the weather will be so sultry the plastering will drop in globules from the wall.

It would be an excellent time to organize a "fat man's club" now. At every street corner, in the hotel lobbies—everywhere that men congregate, gentlemen rotund in person may be counted by the score. There is simply an epidemic of people who would tip the beam at the over the two hundred pound notch.

Good Sale, Good Prices.

There was quite a good tobacco break at the Farmer's warehouse this morning. Mr. Holt, of Alamance, sold a load at an average of $20. Mr. Robinson, of the same county, also sold a load at an average of $18.

We are glad to see that the farmers are beginning to find out that Greensboro is the place to sell tobacco. It is one of the best markets in the State, and when they sell here they seem to be highly pleased. Our warehousemen are hard workers, and always do their best for their patrons.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Evangelist Lee's son has entered Davis School at Winston.

Hon. J. C. Buxton came down on the noon train from Winston.

The handsomest show window hat rack in the city is to be seen at C. M. Vanstory & Co's.

E. H. Jones has taken a position in the wholesale dry goods department of J. W. Scott & Co.

J. S. Cobb, of this city, an expert tobacconist, has been selected for one of the judges of the Winston tobacco fair.

E. G. Morris, of Randleman, a visitor to the city today, made THE TELEGRAM a call. THE TELEGRAM will return the call by daily visits to Mr. Morris in Randleman.

Postmaster Wilson, Maj. Sam Smith Con Lemly, and D. D. Schouler, are here attending court. They are witnesses in the case against Joe Farrar for sending scurrilous matter through the mails.

Mrs. T. R. Purnell and two daughters, of Raleigh, arrived today on the noon train. The Misses Purnell will enter the Normal and Industrial College, and Mrs. Purnell will spend the week at the McAdoo with her husband, Judge Purnell, who is holding court here.

Things are fast approaching a lively aspect out at the Normal. Every train brings crowds of young ladies to the term which opens tomorrow. Already a large number have arrived, and the arrivals by tonight's trains are expected to about fill the institution. A splendid opening is at hand.

Up to date and up with the times, C. M. Vanstory & Co. are still adding to the attractions of their place of business. They have placed a fine clock in their establishment and a handsome umbrella sign, both the face of the clock and the sign bearing unique and appropriate inscriptions. Stop and see them as you pass.

Up to this writing no important cases have been disposed of in Federal court. One fellow gets two months in jail for retailing in Montgomery county. All the cases so far reached are for retailing and are of minor importance. Things will probably liven up a bit when the denizens of the bushes are reached.

to see the soiled linen that a man who isn't neat in dress will sometimes wear, when for so little money he can look as if he came out of a bandbox. It's a mistake! We will keep you looking like a gentleman for a whole week for less than you spend on soda water or beer. If you bring your linen to the up-to-date Steam Laundry.
